

Brief text:

Payt, the standard in modern credit management

Payt proves that credit management can be personal, efficient and effective. The software allows organisations to send invoices and reminders fully automated, without losing control in the process. Payt also facilitates dialogue with debtors via an advanced communication system. This makes an invoice a point of contact in the customer experience and ensures better payment behaviour. Payt thus ensures faster payments and peace of mind in the organisation.